

Sample Demand Letter

Victims of dishonored checks are required to make at least one attempt to notify a check writer to demand payment of a dishonored check that is returned because of Insufficient Funds. This must be done by regular mail, supported by an affidavit of service or by certified mail. The check writer must then be given five (5) days to respond. (If, after that time, the matter has not been resolved, the check can be referred to the Bad Check Restitution Program. See the Program Guidelines for more details on referring a check.)

The sample demand letter below is suitable to send the check writer. The language of the letter conforms to the requirements of the Michigan Statutes.

Note: Victims of dishonored checks must not make any threats of prosecution (written or oral) to enforce or enhance the collection or honoring of the check.

Be sure to date the letter.

You can vary this text, but the text of a demand letter should “substantially conform to” this wording.

You may require the check writer to pay fee's allowable by law.

Keep a copy of the demand letter and enclose a copy of the demand letter or return receipt when you submit the check to the Bad Check Restitution Program.

If it is returned as undeliverable, you should enclose the undelivered letter when you submit the check to the Bad Check Restitution Program.

The Bad Check Restitution Program requires check writers to pay the victim for any bank charges that are incurred as a result of the bad check - as well as the full amount of the check.

In the event you contact the check writer by phone, you should still send the letter.

Of course you are free to discuss the matter with the check writer, but remember to avoid threats of prosecution.
